

SEVEN DECADES OF MUSIC

Not many vocal groups out there can claim to have been members of a Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame band, but Landon Beard, Todd Fournier and brothers Brian and Brandon Brigham can. They were all handpicked by the legendary Frankie Valli to join The Four Seasons and for well over a decade, have thrilled audiences all over the world. During their long tenure with the music icon, they developed their own identity which is reminiscent of the classic sounds of yesterday, but blended with today's modern style. Valli saw something special in them that he'd never found in any of the configurations of singers he'd worked with and gave them his blessing to go out on their own. Their incredible journey led to the birth of The Modern Gentlemen and their becoming America's premier vocal group in celebrating the Great American songbook and more!

They've performed on the world's biggest stages including multiple concert tours in London, England at Royal Albert Hall with the London Symphony Orchestra, the O2 Arena, Hampton Court and BBC Proms In The Park for over 40,000 people! They represented their country on, "A Capitol Fourth" in Washington D.C. with Michael McDonald, Patti LaBelle, John Williams and others, as well as two limited engagements on the Broadway stage. They've toured all over the U.S., Canada, U.K., Asia, Israel, Italy, Australia and New Zealand. As favorites of PBS audiences, they've starred on two nationwide specials and headlined in Las Vegas as well as recently having their own residency in Atlantic City, NJ.

They've had the honor to share the stage and work with The Beach Boys, The Manhattan Transfer, Sheena Easton, Jim Brickman and most recently opening for Doja Cat at The Atlantis Resort in the Bahamas for New Years. They've performed for presidents of The United States and Prince William of Wales at the esteemed Arts Club in London.
